GECKO on the WALL

Danielle Bruckert

There's a gecko on my wall,
I don't mind him there at all;
Lying quietly watching me,
he is quite good company.

There's a gecko on the rock,
she seems to be wearing a frock;
And I think she is asking me,
if I want to come to tea.

There's a gecko in the pool,
he really does look cool;
Sipping a long cool lemonade,
wearing sunglasses in the shade.

There's a gecko on the roof,
he is acting quite aloof;
Whispering calmly to me:

I simply must get down,
since I have to go to town,
I need to be there by three.

Of all the geckos that I see:

The gecko on a rock in a frock;

The gecko looking cool in the pool;

The gecko who's aloof on the roof;

I like best of all,
the gecko on my wall,

lying quietly,

watching

me.

BUGS by NUMBERS

Danielle Bruckert

Down in the garden
under the tree,
there's a whole lot of creatures
living with me.

Down in the garden

under the tree,

how many

GECKOS

can you see?

One -

One colourful GECKO, lying on the rock,
happily.

1

Down in the garden

under the tree,

how many

BUZZY BEES

can you see?

One, Two -

Two BUZZY BEES

flying freely

by me.

2

Down in the garden

under the tree,

how many

LADYBUGS

can you see?

One, two, three -
Three LADY BUGS
playing daintily.

Each ladybug has three black dots, each side of her back, can you see?

Down in the garden

under the tree,

how many

BUTTERFLIES

can you see?

One, two, three, four -

Four beautiful BUTTERFLIES

fluttering by me.

Down in the garden

under the tree,

how many

ARMY ANTS

can you see?

One, two three, four, five -

Five angry ARMY ANTS, marching two by three.

1 2 3

4 5

One gecko;

Two buzzy bees;

Three ladybugs;

Four butterflies;

Five army ants.

These are all the creatures
living with me,
down in the garden,
under the tree.

Writing on the Wall

Danielle Bruckert

I wanted to write
as much as I could,

I wanted to write
for all I was able,

I wanted to write
whether or not I should,

I wanted to write
on the chairs and the table;

But Mum said,
Only on the paper!

I wanted to write
on the walls in the halls,

I wanted to write
on the floors and the doors,

I wanted to write
on the bats and the balls,

I wanted to write
on mine and on yours;

But Mum said,
Only on the paper!

I wanted to write
on the bricks and the blocks,

I wanted to write
on the rug and the stairs,

I wanted to write
on the grandfather clocks,

I wanted to write
on my teddy-bears;

But Mum said,
Only on the paper!

I wanted to write
up high in the sky,

I wanted to write
way down below;

I wanted to write
far away and nearby,

I wanted to write
on my big toe;

But Mum said,
Only on the paper!

I wanted to write
on a thing I can send,

I wanted to write
on a thing I can bend;

I wanted to write
where no-one can see,

I wanted to write,
because I am me!

But Mum said,
Only on the paper!

Mum didn't want me to write
on the walls in the halls,

Mum didn't want me write
on the floor or the door;

Mum didn't want me to write
on the chairs or the stairs,

Mum didn't want me write
on the blocks or the clocks;

Mum wanted me to write:

ONLY ON THE PAPER!

I wanted to write on the walls,
I really did,

But I knew it would make Mum sad;

I really wanted to be a good kid,

I didn't want to be bad.

So do you know what I did?

I wrote,

ONLY

on the paper.

About the Author

Danielle Bruckert

Danielle is a New Zealander living abroad, who now calls Africa home. Her chosen career is as a professional pilot, she has worked in a variety of aviation capacities from instruction to airline flying, and is the author of several aviation text books.

Danielle started writing children's books as a creative outlet from the stress of her 'day job' and as a break from the sometimes monotonous work required for her professional writing.

She began with the Mac and Dipper series, aimed at 5-10 year old children, inspired by two of her own dogs. After having a child of her own, she suddenly found she had a muse, an eager resource for test reading, and, by benefit of her age, an honest critic all in one. It was fun and rewarding to write creative stories which matched her daughters learning curve and a series of 'junior' books aimed at pre-school children followed.

Encouraged by the responses received, and already familiar with the self-publishing route through her non-fiction books, Danielle started the website www.freekidsbooks.org, and began publishing the books for others to enjoy.

Because of her passion for children's literature and the role it plays in improved literacy standards, all of Danielle's own books are available for free download and may be used free of charge for non-commercial purposes.
